ESTATE & GARDENS
About Cheekwood

Cheekwood is considered one of the finest American Country Place Era estates in the nation. Formerly the family home of Mabel and Leslie Cheek, the extraordinary 1930s estate, with its 30,000-square-foot Mansion and 55 acres of cultivated gardens and expansive vistas, today serves the public as a botanical garden, arboretum, and museum with period rooms and art galleries, showcasing works from its permanent collection as well as traveling exhibitions. The property includes 13 distinct gardens including the Blevins Japanese Garden and the Bracken Foundation Children’s Garden, as well as a 1.5-mile woodland trail featuring modern and contemporary outdoor sculpture.

Each year, Cheekwood hosts seasonal festivals including Cheekwood in Bloom, Summertime at Cheekwood, Cheekwood Harvest and Holiday LIGHTS. Cheekwood is listed on the National Register of Historic Places, accredited by the American Alliance of Museums, and is a three-time USA Today Top 10 Botanical Garden. In 2020, the grounds were awarded a Level II National Arboretum Accreditation by The ArbNet Arboretum Accreditation Program and The Morton Arboretum. Cheekwood is located just 8 miles southwest of downtown Nashville at 1200 Forrest Park Drive.

Mission

And Growing!
Cheekwood in Bloom
Belle Fleurs

FEBRUARY 10 – MARCH 10
Orchids take center stage each February with lush and vibrant displays in both Botanic Hall and the Historic Mansion. Guests are greeted by an extravagant installation that begins in the entrance foyer of the Mansion and carries up the winding staircase into the period rooms, culminating in an immersive floor-to-ceiling installation. This annual display is both art and horticulture in its design, and changes every year to offer an entirely new experience. Throughout the Orchid Show, visitors also enjoy live piano performances on weekends in the Mansion and a variety of Orchid workshops and related programs.

MARCH 9 – APRIL 14
The 2024 Cheekwood in Bloom festival, with its 250,000 spring blooming bulbs, will be a celebration of Belle Fleurs as Cheekwood pays tribute to the art and culture of France. In the Bradford Robertson Color Garden, visitors will delight in thousands of tulips displayed in impressionist-inspired design palettes, including scrollwork hedges and clipped vertical shrubs, signature features of the French parterre garden. At the terminus of the Garden’s archway, where an expansive field of daffodils beckon visitors, will be a 12-foot model Eiffel Tower, making for the perfect Instagram photo. In the Historic Mansion & Museum, Cheekwood will host the exhibition, Edgar Degas: The Private Impressionist.

SEASONAL FESTIVALS

Orchids at Cheekwood

SPECIAL PROGRAMS THROUGHOUT CHEEKWOOD IN BLOOM
Throughout the five-week festival, Cheekwood will showcase an array of programs and activities highlighting the music, cuisine and traditions of the French, featuring an outdoor Jardin de Bière serving French food and wines, a Cabaret with live performances, and even a miniature Champs-Elysées with strolling live musicians. Workshops, lectures, and programs will focus on all things French from creating lavender wreaths and learning how to design your own parterre garden to “Taking a Deep Dive into Degas” and, of course, en plein air painting. Children will delight in the stories and adventures of Madeline as they engage in the dance, music, and literature of France.
Flora in Botanic Hall

Visitors to Botanic Hall will delight in an ever changing and uniquely curated horticulture display, that extends from orchids in the winter to chrysanthemums in the fall and poinsettias in the winter.

Cheekwood Harvest

SEPTEMBER 14 – OCTOBER 27

Celebrate the autumn season during Cheekwood Harvest. Oaks, maples, dogwoods, and other trees greet you with their changing fall colors. Thousands of chrysanthemums, and interactive Pumpkin Village with three pumpkin houses and meandering pumpkin patch, a 9ft P’mumkin topiary, a signature scarecrow trail, and weekend programs appeal to families and adults alike. The six-week celebration is the perfect place for a solo stroll, a crisp fall family day, or a special date.

Pumpkin Village
Step into Cheekwood’s Pumpkin Village to explore three life-size Pumpkin Houses and shop for your own pumpkins in the surrounding pumpkin patch!

Community Scarecrows
Silly and serious, big and small, frightening and friendly scarecrows created by the Nashville community invade the Turner Seasons Garden during Cheekwood Harvest.

The Great P’Mumkin
Take the perfect photo next to Cheekwood’s own 8ft tall by 8ft wide topiary made in the shape of a pumpkin and comprised totally with fall blooming chrysanthemums.

S’MORES STATIONS & HOLIDAY MARKETPLACE
Visitors will warm up and enjoy chocolatey treats at s’mores roasting stations outside the Frist Learning Center. Inside, shop for holiday décor and goodies in the Holiday Marketplace.

POINSETTIA TREE & LOGGIA DISPLAY
Visitors will be awestruck by our 20-foot-tall poinsettia tree, a focal point of the Historic Mansion & Museum specially decorated for the holidays.

VISIT WITH SANTA | SATURDAY & SUNDAYS
Children are invited to step into Santa’s magical world on weekends leading up to Christmas. Santa looks forward to visiting with each child, takes gift requests, and is available for pictures with the whole family.

NOVEMBER 23 - JANUARY 5
Make lasting holiday memories with Cheekwood’s enchanting Holiday LIGHTS experience – Nashville’s favorite winter tradition. Evening visitors can explore a one-mile trail of over one million lights glowing throughout the gardens, roast s’mores, do some shopping, and more. The period rooms in the Historic Mansion & Museum are also brilliantly decorated for the holidays.

HOLIDAY LIGHTS | SPECIAL FEATURES
Along a one-mile trail of lights, guests can delight in special features of Holiday LIGHTS, including whimsical Candy Cane Trees, a dazzling Arches Tunnel display, color-changing Pinnacle of Lights, and an expansive Star Field. These artful displays provide the perfect place for photos and to take in the beauty of the illuminated winter gardens.

MILITARY MONDAYS DURING HOLIDAY LIGHTS
Each Monday evening, Military families enjoy half-priced admission. Visitors have the opportunity to purchase a gift from the Holiday Marketplace or one of our retail shops as part of our holiday gift drive, which delivers presents to military families.
El Día de los Muertos, the Day of the Dead, is one of the most important celebrations in Mexico and Latin America. The festival, known for its colorful decorations, energetic music, and elaborate displays, demonstrates the culture’s strong sense of love and respect for ancestors while celebrating the continuance of life. In 2024, Cheekwood will celebrate the 25th annual celebration of this much-loved event, inviting our community to learn about the culture of Mexico and Latin America with traditional music and dance, vibrant art activities, authentic cuisine, and more.

Holi Festival, or festival of colors, is an Indian celebration symbolizing a fresh start and new commitments, much like spring itself. Holi aligns perfectly with the seasonal Cheekwood in Bloom festival, adding even more vibrant colors to Cheekwood’s spring roster. This popular event features Indian food, dance, traditional music, art activities, and vendors. A Holi highlight is the distribution of vibrant colored powder for attendees to toss in the air and on one another as they celebrate spring.

Cheekwood’s Black Arts Bash runs from 9 AM to 9 PM and features visual and performing arts. Visitors enjoy live performances throughout the day and evening by Nashville’s top Black musicians, spoken word by Black Nashville artists, an art exhibition and related programs, a collaborative art project, tasty fare from local Black chefs, and more.

In partnership with the Consulate-General of Japan and the Japan-America Society of Tennessee, Cheekwood hosts an annual Otsukimi, Japanese Moon Viewing, each fall. This celebration of Japanese culture and the harvest moon features a kimono fashion show, live dance performances, mochi pounding, traditional tea ceremonies, storytelling and more. Bilingual tours of the Blevins Japanese Garden are available until sunset.
TOTS!
The Bracken Foundation Children’s Garden is the perfect site for our beloved TOTS! program featuring weekly-themed hands-on art activities, sing-a-longs, story times, and Turtle Talks. This engaging, fun-loving program is offered Tuesdays through Saturdays in the Spring and Fall, with additional offerings throughout the summer months.

THE GREAT SPRING ART HOP
MARCH 29 - 30
Families engage with Cheekwood’s gardens and art during the Great Spring Art Hop, hosted during the beautiful spring season. Visitors enjoy a scavenger hunt for eight large-scale bunnies, created by Nashville artists and hidden throughout the gardens. Children enjoy egg hunts, themed programming, arts and crafts, special performances, and story time.

SUMMER CAMP
JUNE 3 - JULY 26
Cheekwood offers full and half-day camps for students ages 5 through 14 focusing on art and gardens throughout the months of June & July. Cheekwood provides scholarships to ensure everyone has the opportunity to enjoy and learn about the wonders of the estate and gardens.

DESTINATION CHEEKWOOD: FREE SCHOOL & FAMILY FIELD TRIPS
Through partnerships with Title I schools and local organizations, Destination Cheekwood provides enriching, multi-generational outings for students, as well as educators and families. Students are engaged in art, history, and gardens with a field trip to Cheekwood. Addressing transportation, financial and language barriers that limit access to education opportunities, Destination Cheekwood for families provides free bus transportation, healthy meals, translated materials, and one-year family memberships.

Over 9,000 school children and 1,100 students and family members visit Cheekwood each year through Destination Cheekwood from Tennessee, Kentucky, and Alabama. Guided tours are tailored to each group’s grade level and subject area to align with Tennessee Academic Standards. Students in grades pre-K through 12 explore the botanical gardens, experience the Historic Mansion & Museum, and tour art exhibitions in the art galleries.

CHEEKWOOD ON THE ROAD
Cheekwood on the Road brings hands-on art and science lessons to schools. During this experience, students explore landscape architecture by learning about Cheekwood’s history and critically examine our permanent art collection. Additional focus areas include temporary art and seasonal garden exhibitions. After rotating through Cheekwood teacher-led stations, students bring home their masterpieces at the end of the day.

EMPOWER PAID INTERNSHIPS
Cheekwood offers spring, fall, and summer paid internships to students from area colleges and universities, including HBCUs and community colleges. These paid, hands-on learning opportunities encourage a variety of careers in museums, education, horticulture, and more.
2024 Middle Tennessee Scholastic Art Awards

FEBRUARY 3 – MARCH 10

For the 33rd consecutive year, Cheekwood will partner with the Alliance for Young Artists and Writers to host the Scholastic Art Competition and Exhibition. Creative, imaginative, and talented teens from across middle Tennessee submit 1,500 works of art in a variety of categories. Artwork by the 2024 winners will be displayed in the Frist Learning Center Great Hall.

Edgar Degas: The Private Impressionist Works on Paper by the Artist & His Circle

The exhibition features over forty works by Degas and an additional selection of more than forty works by well-known artists, many of whom were friends of Degas, including Mary Cassatt, Paul Cezanne, and Pierre-Georges Jeanniot. Exhibited together, these works provide a delightful exploration into the art and personality of one of the most skilled, intelligent, and complex artists in the history of art.

Exhibition organized by Landau Traveling Exhibitions, Los Angeles, CA in association with Deneberg Fine Arts, West Hollywood, CA.
Trolls: Save the Humans

MAY 2 - SEPTEMBER 8

The imaginative and interactive exhibition Trolls: Save the Humans will feature six larger-than-life, sculptural trolls, each made from recycled materials and ranging from 16 to 50 feet. Set amongst Cheekwood’s gardens, the exhibition will relay messages of stewardship and sustainability to the “small people” of earth. With a background in music and street art, Denmark-based recycle artist Thomas Dambo brings a creative and versatile approach to his multifaceted installations.

Trolls: Save the Humans will be intertwined with Cheekwood’s unique gardens, trees, and historic landscape for a one-of-a-kind storytelling experience. Children and adults alike will enjoy imagining each of the six featured Trolls’ tales and considering their messages to humankind.
MAJOR THEMED CELEBRATIONS

Exposition of Elegance: Classic Cars at Cheekwood

JUNE 15 & 16
